3Dproparts™ Expands Its Online Presence

- French 3Dproparts™ Website Provides Easy Online Access -

ROCK HILL, South Carolina – July 13, 2010 - 3D Systems Corporation (NASDAQ: TDSC), announced today the immediate availability of its entire 3Dproparts™ services in France through a new French language website.

3Dproparts™ began operating in France last week through the acquisition of two leading French Prototypers, CEP and PROTOMETAL, and moved quickly to democratize customer access to its latest technology solutions and services through the deployment of this website.

"We are pleased to offer immediate, secure online access to our French customers," said Cathy Lewis vice president global marketing, 3D Systems. "We plan to grow our French 3Dproparts™ service further and leverage the strong foundation that CEP and PROTOMETAL bring for the benefit of our French customers."

3D Systems launched 3Dproparts™, the world's fastest growing Rapid Prototyping and Manufacturing parts service last October. The company plans to continue to expand its 3Dproparts™ service offerings globally through organic growth and additional strategic acquisitions.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements made in this release that are not statements of historical or current facts are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements may involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the company to be materially different from historical results or from any future results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. In addition to statements that explicitly describe such risks and uncertainties, readers are urged to consider statements in the conditional or future tenses or that include terms such as "believes," "belief," "expects," "estimates," "intends," "anticipates" or "plans" to be uncertain and forward-looking.
