3D Systems Empowers Tri-State Area Makers With Affordable 3D Printers

- 3D Content-To-Print Interactive Demonstrations And Raffle Attract Large Crowds -

ROCK HILL, South Carolina, September 22, 2011 – 3D Systems Corporation (NYSE: DDD) announced today the names of its Maker Faire New York BotMill™ 3D printer kit raffle winners: Rose Drakakis from New York and Declan Alvidrez from New Jersey. Each winner walked away with a new BotMill™ 3D printer kit. During the live ceremony Mrs. Drakakis spoke about pledging her Botmill™ to her son's school, Child and Legacy High School in New York City. Separately, the company also gifted a free Botmill™ printer kit to Joey Hudy, a 14-year old boy from Arizona, in recognition of his entrepreneurial spirit and deep passion for 3D printing.

"The enthusiasm and excitement around our maker's content-to-print toolbox exceeded our expectations," said Rajeev Kulkarni, Vice President and General Manger, Consumer Solutions, 3D Systems. "Giving Rose, Joey and Declan immediate access to affordable 'personal-manufacturing' tools so they can pursue their maker dreams was the highlight of the weekend for our team."

About 3D Systems Corporation

About World Maker Faire

Maker Faire is the premier event for grassroots American innovation. As the world's largest DIY festival, this two day, family friendly Faire has something for everyone: a showcase of invention, creativity and resourcefulness and a celebration of the maker mindset. Maker Faire isn't easy to describe, but these videos do a pretty good job of showing what a wonderful and unique festival it is: www.makerfaire.com.
